

Monday 1st Sept: All nations will remember the Lord. From every part of the world they will return to him; all races will worship him. The Lord is King, and he rules the nations.

Tuesday 2nd Sept: Lord God, protect the hearts and minds of those who have begun their journey on the road to faith, so that they shall keep to the only true path that lead to Jesus. Amen.

Wednesday 3rd Sept: We pray for peace and reconciliation in Ukraine, Russia, Israel and Gaza, for a final end to fighting and a new sense of hope.

Thursday 4th Sept: Loving Father, we pray for anyone who is experiencing ill health, loneliness, sadness, disappointment, anxiety, sincere doubt, or any other adversities that make it hard for them to pray. Please help them to come in their brokenness to receive your mercy and grace. Amen.

Friday 5th Sept: The one concern of the devil is To keep Christians from praying. He fears nothing from prayerless studies, prayerless work and prayerless religion. He laughs at our toil, mocks our wisdom, but trembles when we pray. (Samuel Chadwick, Wesleyan Methodist minister 1860-1932)

Saturday 6th Sept: We give thanks for our families and friends. We pray that they may come to know you, gracious Lord.

Sunday 7th Sept: Read Psalm 139.

Monday 8th Sept: Holy Spirit, in a world full of fear and uncertainty we give thanks for growing signs that many people in the UK, especially the young are exploring the Christian faith. We entreat you to continue breathing upon this "Quiet Revival" for the glory of your name.

Tuesday 9th Sept: Loving God, we thank you for your guidance. May your love and support help us grow stronger and release any past hurt.

Wednesday 10th Sept: Loving Father, we seek your help and guidance to cultivate kindness and responsiveness in our thoughts and actions.

Thursday 11th Sept: In you we find peace and serenity. Thank you Lord, for your compassion and understanding as we navigate this journey.

Friday 12th Sept: Merciful God, you forever guide us. May our lives truthfully reflect your eternal goodness, love and grace. Now and forever, Amen

Saturday 13th Sept: Thank Lord for the many government and charitable organisations that are dedicated to searching for people who are missing. Please grant success in finding and reuniting individuals with their families and provide support for those in distress. In Christ's name. Amen.

Sunday 14th Sept: Read Psalm 150

Monday 15th Sept: We pray for all those who seek the common good. Ambulance workers, doctors, nurses and consultants, those who work in the Fire Service and those who keep our streets clean. Bless them all. Amen.

Tuesday 16th Sept: We thank you Lord for all those you have called to be teachers- who nurture young lives and enable them to flourish. Please sustain them, especially in testing circumstances. By your grace. Amen.

Wednesday 17th Sept: Forgive me, Lord, for a mind that turns so readily to weigh my troubles, so seldom to count my blessings. Teach me the practice of recollection, the habit of thankfulness, the art of praise. May I deal as generously with others as you deal with me; for Jesus Christ's sake.
(Timothy Dudley-Smith)

Thursday 18th Sept: Bless O Lord our God, the worship and work of our church, that it may be a house of prayer, a centre of Christian teaching, community of service; and a witness to your redeeming love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Friday 19th Sept: Into your strong hands, our Father, we commend this day, our souls and bodies, our homes and families, our friends and neighbours, and all who especially need your help. Grant to each of us your all-sufficient grace and keep us in peace and safety; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Saturday 20th Sept: God of hope, fill us with all joy as well as with your peace in believing; that we may serve you with gladness, delight to do your will, and always make melody to you in our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Frank Colquhoun)

Sunday 21st Sept: Read Psalm 121.

Monday 22nd Sept: Lord Jesus Christ, healer of man's body, mind and spirit have compassion on all those who are ill at this time. Restore them in your mercy to health and strength. Give them the assurance of your love and forgiveness. May they know your presence near to them, and your peace in their hearts; for your name's sake.

Tuesday 23rd Sept: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the places you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can. (John Wesley 1703-1791).

Wednesday 24th Sept: Holy, holy, holy God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Glory be to you most High!

Thursday 25th Sept: "The Lord secures justice for the poor and upholds the cause of the needy"
Psalm 140 v 12

Friday 26th Sept: 'God cannot give us peace and happiness apart from Himself Because there is no such thing. Life with God is not immunity from difficulties, but peace within difficulties'.
(C S Lewis)

Saturday 27th Sept: Gracious God, please continue to inspire Church leaders and individual Christians to prioritise Thanksgiving, praise worship and intercession within the rhythm of each week. We pray for a deepening desire to be in your presence and greater faith to believe you will act. Amen

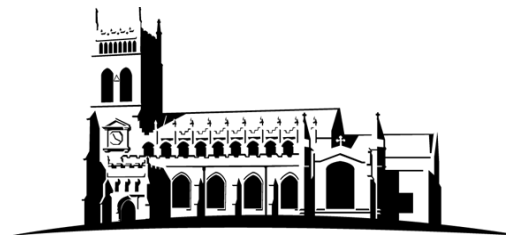

Sunday 28th Sept: Read Psalm 103

Monday 29th Sept: Dear Lord, we pray for all who suffer in body, mind or spirit, especially those who are starving or undernourished. We pray in Jesus name. Amen.

Tuesday 30th Sept: The Helper, the Holy Spirit, who the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and make you remember all that I have told you. John 14 v 26 (G N B)
