

Monday 1st August: Make us remember O God, that every day is your gift and ought to be used according to your command, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Tuesday 2nd August: Praise to the Father, Praise to the Son, Praise to the Spirit, the Three in One. Celtic prayer.

Wednesday 3rd August: Lord help me to say 'Yes' Michel Quoist

Thursday 4th August: Lord, we pray for all those in positions of authority. Give them integrity and a will to govern your way. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Friday 5th August: We pray for families everywhere, especially those who are struggling in this present economic crisis. May they find the help they need.

Saturday 6th August: May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give us grace and peace. From Romans 1

Sunday 7th August: We pray for all war torn countries especially the Ukraine. Lead them from hate to love and from war to peace.

Monday 8th August: We pray for farmers and all those who work on the land. Please make the harvest a success.

Tuesday 9th August: We pray for our G.P's and all who work in our hospitals. Give them wisdom, integrity and calmness of spirit.

Wednesday 10th August: Lord, we thank you for our families and friends. Bind us together with your love.

Thursday 11th August: We thank you Lord for our food. May we give to those who have so little, both here and in other countries.

Friday 12th August: Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29 v 12 & 13.

Saturday 13th August: All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above. Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord. For all his love.

Sunday 14th August: We pray for Phil, Margaret and Andy and for all visiting clergy at this time of interregnum. Bless them Lord and give them wisdom and a quiet spirit.

Monday 15th August: Pour forth O Christ, your love upon this earth today. (Author unknown)

Tuesday 16th August: Dear Lord Jesus, you have been through death yourself. Be near to those who are dying. Make yourself known to them. Give them your peace and take away their fears. Amen.

Wednesday 17th August: We read and meditate on Psalm 139.

Thursday 18th August: We fix our attention not on things that are seen, but on things that are unseen.....so we are always full of courage. (From 2 Corinthians)

Friday 19th August: Heavenly Father, we pray for the homeless, that they might be accepting of help offered to them. Bless them Lord and lighten their path.

Saturday 20th August: We thank you Lord for our police and ambulance crews. Also for our Town pastors that they may show your compassion and care to all who are in need.

Sunday 21st August: Lord you said so gently, so persistently 'Give me your weariness and I will give you my rest'.
I did – finally.
You did – immediately.
Then Lord, I marvelled that I had waited so long. (Ruth Harris Calkin)

Monday 22nd August: O Christ, who being rich for our sakes was made poor; who did will to become the man of sorrows: teach us to serve you in the person of our needy brothers and sisters, weak, suffering and disregarded. (Eugene Bersier 1831 – 1889)

Tuesday 23rd August: Let us thank God for his priceless gift! From 2 Corinthians' 9.

Wednesday 24th August:
Teach me my God and King
In all things thee to see
And what I do in anything
To do it as for thee. (George Herbert)

Thursday 25th August: Help us Lord to be considerate to the deaf, who often feel alone and cut off from the sounds of the world. Let us talk to them clearly so that they may feel less isolated. Please give patience to those who teach them.

Friday 26th August:
Let us with a gladsome mind, Praise the Lord for he is kind.
For his mercies shall endure
Ever faithful, ever sure. (St Teresa of Avila)

Saturday 27th August: Save us Lord when we are awake; guard us while we are asleep; that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep may rest in his peace.

Sunday 28th August: We pray for all who serve in our hospices and for all who are cared for. May your love, joy and peace be theirs.

Monday 29th August: To the eternal King, immortal and invisible, the only God, unto him be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. (1 Timothy 1)

Tuesday 30th August: Father we pray for all children who have been abused and cruelly treated. Give them your healing and a sense of worth that comes from knowing that each one of them is loved and valued in your eyes. Amen.

Wednesday 31st August: As our school starts a new school year very soon, please bless teachers and children alike and give them a sense of your love. Amen
