Sunday Next Before Lent

'Transfiguration' by Laura James (2000)

"You say it best, when you say nothing at all"

I wonder if you're familiar with the rest of lyrics from this country song made particularly famous in 1999 when Ronan Keating released his version of it as part the soundtrack to the romantic movie, 'Notting Hill'? The song sings of the experiential nature of love and of seeing truth revealed without the need for it to be discussed or debated or proven or argued. It just is.

This week we hear the story of 'The Transfiguration'. I remember a conversation, many years ago now, wondering what a wedding couple visiting the church for the first time to hear their banns read would have made of that morning's readings. Jesus going up a mountain and being seen talking to Moses and Elijah, his long dead ancestors, only for arguably his three closest disciples to suggest building them a tabernacle in which to dwell - as if a physical tabernacle might contain them in a particular time or place. You might wonder what to make of it too. Peter's fear leading him to speak and act - to do something to alleviate the discomfort when faced by the unknown and the unfamiliar. Nervous action - keeping busy. Then there's the instruction not to mention the experience to anyone - to stay quiet until after the whole story has been revealed at the resurrection.

Perhaps staying quiet sometimes helps others to see the truth in us. Perhaps we are called to see and understand differently that which we are familiar - as the purpose of the law (Moses) and the words of the prophets (Elijah) take on a new meaning in the light of God's glory - Christ with us.

Perhaps... but only if we have been changed and are willing to continue to be changed by our experience of God. We too are to be transfigured. That process of transfiguration, of prayerfuelled transformation comes through experience: moments of ascent and descent, light and cloud, speech and silence.

We must expect to be challenged whenever we try to confine faith to a time or place or particular experience - either on top of the mountain or in the depths of the valleys. We must look out for the ways our behaviour, our values and our lives are challenged by coming to church, singing God's praise, being with others and the journey and offering our hearts and minds and prayers to God.

Singing 'When you say nothing at all' as a love song to God transforms its meaning. Why not try it? Maybe you'll experience a moment of transfiguration as you ask to see more fully the glory of God at work in and through your life.

APCM. Churchwardens serve in one of the most visible and important roles in a church community and we must discern wisely the people who will take on these roles in this season when the church is growing. Please begin to pray and to look for people across this community with practical and people skills whom God may be calling to serve us in this role. The Vicar's prayer is that at team of 4 people will emerge who can work well together, with a blend of ages and experiences. Two named wardens and two dedicated helpers. The role of churchwarden is varied - there are some tasks that must be undertaken, however, it can also be shaped to enable individuals to bring their skills to the role to help St Margaret's continue to flourish and grow. There is some information about being a churchwarden on the Diocesan Website: please speak with Revd Sarah and with Margaret if you would like to explore this.

Growing Deeper

Prayer

Praying for our community: residents, visitors, businesses passers-by this week as we pray for Vermont Crescent, Vermont Road and St Margaret's Street.

Thanksgiving

Messy Vintage are planning their next foray into the community on the theme of love. I wonder which Bible passage you would choose that speaks of love? John 3.16? 1 Corinthians 13? Mark 12.30-31 Deuteronomy 6.5? Romans 8.38-39? Micah 6.8? Something else?

Support

Remember our Pastoral Team are here to support members of the St Margaret's community whether ill or in need of a friendly listening ear, details can be found towards the bottom of this email.

Social Action

Please remember have a box at the back of the church all year round to collect contributions of food and toiletries.

Growing Greener

Green Tip of the week

Time to look at something fundamental – toilet paper. Much of our toilet paper comes in plastic wrappings. Much of it involves the destruction of large areas of forest. If you shop around online you can find toilet paper that is wrapped in paper and is either recycled or made from sustainable bamboo. 'Who Gives a Crap' donates 50% of its profits to NGOs to build toilets and give people access to clean water, and all its products are wrapped in paper. 'Cheeky Panda' produces plastic free bamboo toilet paper. Both are much better for the planet and kind to your bottom! Other products are available so do shop around.

Revd Richard Stainer's weekly tips return soon.

Offertory

The life and mission of St Margaret's is financially sustained through generous giving. If you have been giving regularly as part of your practice of gratefully living in God's service, thank you. If you're new to the community, or would like to think about celebrating life in this way, you may find the following helpful: we receive no income from 'The Church'... we are the church! So, thank you – for anything and everything that you are able to give in response to God's generosity.

In church you can give in a couple of ways on the day:

- Collection plate – during services a collection plate is sometimes passed among the congregation, but you will more often find it at the South door as you leave or arrive. Do use a yellow envelope if you're a tax payer so gift aid may be re-claimed.
- Tap giving – during services a tap giving machine is located on the pillar on the west wall, to the left of the bell tower – do consider tapping your card or device. As well as giving regularly, this is also a good way of offering an occasional additional gift.
- Regular Giving – St Margaret's is registered with the Parish Giving Scheme, allowing you to be in control of your giving and to give securely and safely online by Direct Debit.
- Online giving – If you wish to make a one-off or extra gift online, you can do so securely via the Parish Giving Scheme.
- Gift Aid – if you are a tax payer, St Margaret's can claim back the basic tax you have already paid to the government. To make the appropriate declarations, please speak with the treasurer, John Grierson.
- Leaving a gift in your will or making a donation in memory of a loved one – no matter how large or small, every gift makes a difference. If you would like to talk about this with someone, in confidence, then please consider speaking with the treasurer, John Grierson or the Vicar, Sarah.
