Ringling the Changes

April 2026: the end of an era

Following eons of dedicated and faithful service to the ringing, teaching and maintenance of bells at St Margaret's Church, John Girt will soon be retiring from the role of Tower Captain / Ringing Master. Though Roger Coley has ably assisted of late, he will not be taking on this role, so the search is now on for someone new.

In due course there will be an opportunity to thank both John, and Shirley for her support.

Please commend this to your prayers: that the bell tower's ringing and teaching facilities along with the newly refurbished handbells will continue to ring to God's glory.

The Bellringers are already thinking about 'what next'. If you are interested in finding out more please speak with John Girt, Tower Captain on 01473 724858 or revsarahgeileskey@gmail.com 07841 687879.
